In order to avoid plagiarism it is essential that students take notes and acknowledge the sources of their information. This acknowledgement is called a Bibliography. The Bibliography is included at the end of the research paper in alphabetical order by the author’s surname, or, in the case of no author, by the title of the work.

The preferred style of referencing in Australia is the HARVARD SYSTEM. The Harvard system is divided into two sections called In-text Citations and Bibliography.

For additional information consult your Teacher/Librarian or refer to the following websites:

HARVARD GENERATOR at www.harvardgenerator.com/

Publications on referencing can be found in the Library at 371.3